

Welcome to The 5th International Conference on Maintenance Science and Technology
Xi'an, China. Sept. 22-26, 2020/www.icmst2020.com

Xi'an 13 王朝の都、中國文化の里

- Once called Chang'an, the City of Long-lasting Peace
- Capital of the legendary Tang Dynasty
- The starting point of the legendary ancient Silk Road

大雁塔 (Dayan Pagoda)

Built initially by the Tang Emperor to honour his mother, the Da Ci'en Temple (大慈恩寺) is the place where millions of historical rarities are housed. According to legend, all the Buddhist holy books were stored and translated after eminent monk Xuanzang (三藏法師) returned from the journey to seek the scriptures. Inside the temple stands the Dayan Pagoda (also known as Giant Wild Goose Pagoda), constructed in the 7th century by China's first woman leader, Empress Wu Zetian (則天武后).

Address: 1 Ci'en Lu, Yanta District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 9 AM – 5 PM

西安城壁 (Ancient City Wall)

The well-preserved city wall, which is almost 12 km long, has stood for more than 600 years and are still a great way to navigate around the city. You can cycle or take a walk around the city wall built in traditional style. Locals like to say that they can still hear the sounds of wars and soldiers' cries lingering around, reminding them of those past glories.

Address: Yong Ning Men, Beilin District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 8AM – 10PM

青龍寺 (Qing-Long Temple)

Known as the Temple of the Green Dragon, Japanese monks came to study Buddhism in the 9th century during Tang Dynasty and left a legacy here. The most famous one is the Monk Koukai (空海法師). He studied with Monk Huiguo (惠果法師) and started Esoteric Buddhism (密教) after back Japan. Qing-long Temple is the origin of the Japan Mikkyo (10 minutes' walk from ICMST2020 venue).

Address: Xiyang Lu, Yanta District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 9AM – 5PM

钟楼 (Bell & Drum Tower)

This 14th-century Bell Tower is possibly the best-preserved one in China. In ancient times, guards stood and observed the surrounding countryside to prevent invasions together with the nearby Drum Tower. Today it remains no less important, marking the geographical centre and the symbol of the city.

Address: Zhonglou, Beilin District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 8AM – 10PM

楊貴妃の华清池 (Huaqing Hot Spring)

Located adjacent to Mausoleum of The First Qin Emperor (始皇帝) and Lishan National Park, the water of this hot spring contains many minerals that are said to be good for the skin. It is said that the most famous imperial concubine of the Tang Dynasty, Yang Yu-Huan (楊貴妃), one of the four famous beauties of ancient China, chose this as her bathing ground.

Address: 38 Huaqing Lu, Lintong District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 7AM – 7PM

始皇帝兵馬俑 (Terracotta Warrior Museum)

This is one of the World Historical Heritage Site in China. China's first emperor, Qin Shi Huang (始皇帝), whose greater-than-life ambition also gave birth to the creation of the Great Wall, amassed battalions of life-sized warriors fashioned out of clay, complete with chariots and horses. Each soldier has a different and unique facial expression. Even after more than 2,200 years (it was finished in 210 BC), the warriors remain in perfect condition, watching over their long deceased ruler.

Address: Qinling Bei Lu, Lintong District, Xi'an

Opening hours: 8:30AM – 6PM

陝西歷史博物館 (Shaanxi History Museum)

If you enjoy exploring museums, this is the right place to fulfil knowledge about the ancient Chinese empires which had situated in this region. Take a trip through the region's and city's ancient history at this huge museum, which demonstrates four original terracotta soldiers.

Address: 91 Xiaozhai Dong Lu, Xi'an

Opening hours: 8:30AM – 6PM

美味料理 (Delicious Food)

Address: Xi'an

Opening hours: 6:00AM – 12PM